D) Other Items For Discussion(s): Section 3221 of ABC Law and Number of Licenses per Village

Section 3221

There was discussion as to what constitutes an "event" under ABC law; whether the 10 days allowed under section 3221 were 10 consecutive days or not; and how many temporary licenses can be granted before the applicant is instructed to seek a regular liquor license. The Board agreed to confer with the Attorney General's office on these matters.

Number of Allowable ABC Licenses per Village

Current Guam law restricts the number of ABC licenses issued per Village based on a formula related to population. The Board believes this portion of the law may never have been enforced and several villages are currently over their limits. This law was also likely placed into effect well before Guam's tourist trade and "Pleasure Island" developed. The Board will consult with the Legislature to determine what is the will of the Legislature as to enforcement of this section of the Law.
